

CHANGE FOR CHANGE YOUTH SEMINAR

Sponsorship Proposal

TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE...

2017

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Chance for Change Youth Seminar was officially launched on the 24th of September 2016 in Ramatlabama, Tsetse Village.

It's an annual youth event that focuses on building confidence, empowering and transforming the youth.

Real Talk With Nthabi Foundation, an organization aimed at making a difference to the world through motivation, coaching, donations and community work came up with the Chance for Change Youth Seminar project and joined hands with the youth of tsetse village to expand the idea, Oupa Mabe, Patric Segone, Tsholofelo Segatle, Masilo Moloantoa & Jennifer Mpunzi are part of the members leading the project.

Our goal is to get more youth involved each year as it's meant for all the youth.

We believe that together we can do more.

We focus mainly on the youth in disadvantaged areas, thus far we've reached out to over 10 000 pupils, we've visited disadvantaged schools in North West where the seminar was officially launched, Free State, Pretoria, Polokwane, Mpumalanga and Johannesburg.

MISSION

To empower and transform the youth of Ramatlabama, Tsetse including the community. We aim to change the mind-set of young people , to give them hope and advices on how to overcome any situation they come across in life. To donate sanitary towels and deodorants to schools and the needy young girls and boys in the community.

VISION

To rebuild the confidence among young people, To unlock and unleash the potential in them especially those who have given up and resorted to things like drugs, alcohol abuse, teenage pregnancy , dropping out of school and doing crime.

RTWN SANITARY TOWELS & DEODORANTS CAMPAIGN

Why is this important?

This is aimed at making a difference and reaching out to the needy girls and boys out there. The Confidence of our youth is affected.

Scenario and True story

It's sad to see a young girl's confidence being destroyed due to not having sanitary towels. Instead of focusing in class, she constantly checks if her uniform is intact, being afraid to see blood stains on her school uniform. "Asking herself, "What if there's blood and other learners /pupils laugh at me?"

What about that little boy who walks miles to school in the sun, by the time school starts the little boy is sweaty. What happens to his confidence when other boys laugh at him, when they tell him that he has a bad smell? Let's help our generation, our future leaders. Let's help them claim their confidence back and become better people.

I am Nthabi & I say yes to confidence, I say yes to helping others, I say yes to donating sanitary towels and deodorants to those in need.

One pack of pads and 1 Roll on goes a long way. Help those in need. Give, not because you have much, but because you care enough to share the little that you have.

REALTALKWITHNTHABI FOUNDATION

REALTALKWITHNTHABI Foundation was founded by Lebo-gang Nthabiseng Mokgosi a renowned editor of Real Talk With Nthabi and a Motivational Coach who aims to be a backend and a source of inspiration to others. ## NWESI hosts Planning and Reporting workshop

MAHIKENG MAIL - MAHIKENG: The Office of the Premier reported this week that they were organizing a workshop aimed at developing strategies to improve the quality of departments and public entities' Annual Performance Plans and Annual Reports for improved service delivery.

The workshop will be held at Mmabatho Palms today (Thursday) and starts at 9 o'clock.

Acting provincial government spokesperson, Brian Sewtswambung said the primary aim of the workshop was to address key challenges experienced by departments in drafting quality Annual Performance Plans, issues relating to shareholder management of public entities, reporting on performance information with a view to developing a sustainable implementation plan that will improve service delivery.

"The targeted participants for the workshop include board members, CEOs, HODs, programme managers and other strategic national departments across the planning, monitoring and evaluation value chain", Sewtswambung said.
